

Digestive System

- Show the structure and function of the digestive system.
- Describe how saliva starts digestion.
- Describe one disease that can affect this body system.
- One hands on activity for the class to do, to understand how the system works.
- One PowerPoint presentation.
- One poster with important details of the body system.

Circulatory System

- Show the structure and function of the circulatory system.
- Explain how the heart and lungs work together.
- Describe one disease that can affect this body system.
- One hands on activity for the class to do, to understand how the system works.
- One PowerPoint presentation
- One poster with important details of the body system.

Skeletal/Muscular/Nervous Systems

- Show the structure and function of the three systems.
- Describe how the three systems together
- Describe at least one disease that can affect one of these body systems.
- One hands on activity for the class to do, to understand how the system works.
- One PowerPoint presentation.
- One poster with important details of these body systems.

+Respiratory System

- Show the structure and function of the respiratory system.
- Describe how the lungs and heart work together
- Describe one disease that can affect this body system.
- One hands on activity for the class to do, to understand how the system works.
- One PowerPoint presentation.
- One poster with important details of the body system.

Excretory System

- Show the structure and function of the excretory system.
- Describe products and technology developed for disposal and containment of waste.
- Describe one disease that can affect this body system.
- One hands on activity for the class to do, to understand how the system works.
- One PowerPoint presentation.
- One poster with important details of the body system.

Healthy Body

- Describe the body's defences against infection
- Describe the role of the skin
- Explain the Canada Food Guide
- What are some of the health and fitness options we have in the Sussex Area
- How much exercise should you get in a week
- One poster and one PowerPoint presentation